

14th Annual Elder Caregiver of the Year Award

Thursday March 18, 2021 from 2:00 – 3:00 pm Live Watch Party

Elder Caregiver Appreciation is TRLA's annual signature event where we honor and recognize caregivers in the Triad who demonstrate compassion, love and support to those in need.

Nominate a Caregiver by March 1, 2021 for Caregiver of the Year!

Fill out the nomination form online at trla.info/elder-caregiver-appreciation-nomination-form.

Featuring Guest Speaker Garrett Davis

Garrett Davis, founder of Gdavis Productions, is impacting the way we learn, feel, think and live our best lives through the performing arts and film.

Garrett Davis educates and advocates through laughter with audiences across the nation. His productions bring real life situations to the stage, bringing light to issues of concern for our senior community. Gdavis Productions has established relationships with the National Alzheimer's Association, US Against Alzheimer's, Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center, The Maya Angelou Center on Health Equity, The American Diabetes Association, the Prostate Health Education Network and AARP. These unique partnerships have facilitated raising awareness about various diseases and care giving through award winning projects and theatrical productions.
